

Now we have read and looked at the story together, answer these questions. You only need to use a few words to answer and NOT full sentences.

LO: To be able to follow and read an unknown story
To be able to extract relevant information from a story.
To be able to make predictions and inferences from a story
SC: I can follow and read an unknown story
I can extract relevant information

1. Which country did they take Iron Man's body parts to?
2. What part of the space-bat-angel did they unload the oil, girders and body parts next to?
3. What do you think 'the echo of his laugh' means?
4. What do you think about the author's idea to put the Iron Man on a huge fire?
5. How do you think the space-bat-angel felt when it was his turn to burn?
6. What four colours did the creature turn when he was heating up?
7. Why do you think the creature came back more slowly the second time?
8. What came out of the creature's body and scattered all over the Australian beach?

