Champion Golfer

My Dad, Sam, is a great golfer and even plays in the rain. Last week, he met Bob to play for a gold cup. By the time they got to the golf course, it was thundering and lightning. "Oh No!" said Dad. "Let's play the seventh hole as it is the shortest." Bob went to collect the balls and his teeth were chattering with the cold. There were splashes of mud on his clothes and he was desperate to be warm. "I will let Sam be champion and run inside for a hot drink!"
