

English	Maths	Topic
Write your own poem about the seasons, try to use some rhyming words.  2	Keep a diary of a day from your weekend. Think about what you do in the morning, afternoon, evening. Take pictures/draw and order your day.  3	Create a seasons picture using different materials. Can you write underneath the season and add adjectives to describe your season? 3
Can you create your own character in the story of 'Where the Wild Things Are'? Draw your character and describe them.  3	Can you practice your adding and subtracting skills. Can your grown-ups give you some problems to solve?  3	Can you keep a log of the weekly weather? You could draw pictures or take photos or make a weather report.  2
Basic Skills bonus!	Where can you find the days of the week? Do you know their order? Learn a song, find them in real life or practice with your adults.  2	Make something to measure the weather. It could be a wind chime, rain gauge or a sun catcher.  2
Practise reading your diagraphs and trigraphs, can you find them in your reading book?  2

Can you earn 12 points?

DEADLINE: Monday 11th December 2023