

13th May 2024

Year 3 'Living History' work shop.

Year 3 are learning all about the Stone Age and Bronze Age this term. They kicked off their learning by engaging in a 'living history' work shop which brought history to life as they engaged in a range of activities.

They made Stone Age tools, 'knapped' flint, made pottery vessels, carved chalk and 'drilled' holes with bows. They even made Bronze Age pendants with their names on!

Year 6 parents - SATs Week

A reminder that this week, year 6 will be taking their SATs. From Monday to Thursday the gates will be open at 8.30 for Year 6 only. Please arrive promptly and contact us ASAP if there are any issues.

Local Artist Visit

Year 4 and 5 enjoyed an amazing 'live painting' experience with local artist of 20 years, Shane Record. He created an amazing painting of the White Cliffs of Dover which now hangs in our school hall for everyone to admire. Make sure to have a look next time you visit our hall!
